

SAFE | Press Releases | Media Advisories |

2015 - 2016

2016

“Draw the Line Day” Proclamation: Austin Mayor Steve Adler to Honor SAFE and The Mrs
(April 6, 2016; Austin, TX) —Austin Mayor Steve Adler will present The SAFE Alliance and the Austin-based, all-female band The Mrs with a proclamation declaring April 8 “Draw the Line Day.” Read More

Austin Band and Nonprofit Partner to Launch Campaign in Support of Sexual Assault Awareness Month

(April 5, 2016; Austin, TX) : Austin-based, all-female band The Mrs, announced today a unique partnership with SAFE... The Mrs’ newest song and music video, “Draw the Line,” will serve as the primary tool for awareness and fundraising. Read More

SAFE Supports Thumbs Up! : Sexual Assault Prevention is Everyone’s Business

(Jan. 28, 2016; Austin, TX): Just over 1,000 sexual assaults were reported in Travis County last year. ... And it’s because we can’t ignore sexual assault that Austin is now the site of a ridesharing debate that has been raging over the last several months. ... Read More

2015

SAFE Supports Multi-Layered Regulations for TNCs

(December 16, 2015; AUSTIN, TX): The SAFE Alliance, a partnership of Austin Children’s Shelter and SafePlace, has been closely watching the ongoing debate regarding regulation of transportation network companies (TNC’s) in Austin. ... Read More

Austin Children’s Shelter and SafePlace come together to address violence and abuse

(September 17, 2015; AUSTIN, TX): ...Austin Children’s Shelter and SafePlace have created an operational merger between the two organizations. The new organization is called The SAFE Alliance, or SAFE | Stop Abuse For Everyone. Read More

