SAFE | This event sponsored by The SAFE Alliance.
It's free and open to the community.

Give your loved ones the gift of a lifetime.

Peace of mind! That's how it feels when you've finished creating your legacy plans.

Everyone has questions about legacy planning: we all need a will and other important documents, no matter the size of your estate. And, you're never too young to start planning for the people you love.

We also know that cost, time and the overwhelming feeling of not knowing where to start can sometimes be roadblocks to creating these important documents.

That's why SAFE is offering free resources for you and your family. We are providing a one-time 60 minute online event with Liz Nielsen, Estate Planning Attorney, and Sherree Cannon, Planned and Creative Giving Officer at SAFE. There will be plenty of time for Q&A, so come with your questions.

At the end of this event you will have learned:

- The Three Most Important Documents You Need Right Now
- Why Building Your Legacy is the Most Loving Thing You Can Do for Your Loved Ones
- What Happens to Your Estate When You Die
- The Difference Between a Will and a Trust
- How Building Generosity into Your Legacy Plans Will Help Your Family

Free downloadable resources will be available for attendees.
